PRIVATE TOUR WITH GUIDE AND CAR

Modern Tashkent City Tour

Two faces of Uzbekistan's capital in one day — Khast Imam and Chorsu Bazaar, the squares of the modern city and a ride on the Tashkent Metro.

DURATION	TYPE	STARTS	RUNS
About 6–7 hours	Private, guide + car	Your hotel, Tashkent	Daily

THE TOUR

An old town and a modern capital

Tashkent, the capital of Uzbekistan, has two faces: an old town of mosques, madrasahs and bazaars, and the wide avenues, parks and squares of a modern capital, largely rebuilt after the earthquake of 1966.

Your TravelBliss guide and driver pick you up at your hotel. You visit the Khast Imam complex, walk through Chorsu Bazaar, see the Kukeldash madrasah, then drive through the modern centre to Amir Temur Square and Independence Square — and finish underground, on the Tashkent Metro with its richly decorated stations.

The tour takes about six to seven hours in a private air-conditioned car, with metro tickets included. The pace is relaxed, and your guide adapts the route to what interests you most.

A TYPICAL ROUTE

What you will see

The order depends on the day and on what interests you most. These are the places the tour covers.

1 Khast Imam complex
The spiritual centre of Tashkent: the Barak-Khan madrasah, the Hazrati Imam mosque and the Muyi Mubarak library, which keeps the Uthman Qur'an, one of the oldest Qur'an manuscripts in the world.

2 Chorsu Bazaar
The city's best-known market under its great blue dome: bread, spices, dried fruit and everyday local life.

3 Kukeldash madrasah
A 16th-century madrasah on the edge of the old town, next to Chorsu.

4 The modern centre
A drive along the avenues, government districts and parks of today's capital.

5 Amir Temur Square
The heart of the city, with the equestrian statue of Amir Timur.

6 Independence Square
Mustaqillik Square, the main square of Uzbekistan, with its parks and fountains.

7 Tashkent Metro
Opened in 1977 as the first metro in Central Asia — a ride through some of its most beautiful stations, each decorated in its own style.

Hotel to hotel
Your guide and driver pick you up at your hotel in the morning and bring you back at the end of the tour.

Lunch
If you wish, a lunch break at a local restaurant fits in along the way — Tashkent is famous for its plov.

What to wear
Comfortable shoes, and clothing that covers shoulders and knees for the Khast Imam complex.
